AWARDS

- 2019 R. Tait McKenzie Award – Physical and Health Education Canada: The R. Tait McKenzie award recognizes Canadians who have made significant impact on physical and health education and who have served the profession over an extended period of time. To qualify, candidates must meet the following requirements: at least 20 years experience as a teacher, coach, supervisor or administrator, etc.; and have performed distinguished, meritorious service as a recognized leader locally/regionally, nationally, and internationally.
- 2017 Provost’s Award for Early Achievement of Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, University of Alberta: The Provost’s Award for Early Achievement of Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching recognizes publicly the achievement of teaching excellence by full-time continuing academic staff within five years of their first university appointment, publicizes such excellence to the University and the wider community, encourages the pursuit of achievement of such excellence among newly appointed academic staff, and promotes informed discussion of teaching and its improvement at the University of Alberta.
- 2015 Faculty of Education Award for Excellence and Innovation in the use of Technology for Teaching and Learning, University of Alberta: This Award acknowledges the innovative use of technologies in supporting teaching and learning at the graduate or undergraduate levels in sustainable ways that challenge instructors and students alike. The Award will be presented to an individual or team that has developed or implemented innovative learning products, services, or strategies in a learning context, using existing technology in new ways or using emerging forms of technology.
- 2009 Physical and Health Education Canada – R. Tait McKenzie Canada Scholar Address: The scholar address honours the impact of R. Tait McKenzie on the scholarship of physical education in Canada and beyond. The selected academic is provided an opportunity to address all delegates at the PHE Canada National Conference on a relevant topic of their choice.
- 2009 Health and Physical Education Council – Robert Routledge Memorial Address: The memorial address occurs at the annual Provincial conference and honours Robert Routledge, a teacher and leader in physical education and sport in Alberta whose life was tragically cut short by a random act of violence. The address is an opportunity to reflect on the state of physical education in Alberta and provide key messages and learnings to the delegates.
- 2007 Alberta Education, Health and Wellness - Healthy School Community Award: First presented in 2007, the Healthy School Communities Award honours Alberta individuals, organizations and communities for their efforts to encourage healthy lifestyles among children and youth.
- 2006 Health and Physical Education Council – Certificate of Commendation: Presented to members of the council who have made or are making an outstanding contribution to Health and Physical Education.
