Academic, Research and Work Experience

- July 2015 – Present Associate Dean, Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research
University of Alberta
- Description: Responsible for facilitating graduate student success across the University of Alberta. Collaborating with administrators, students and scholars at all levels to foster the present and future achievement of graduate students at the University of Alberta. Mediating tensions between graduate students and their supervisors.
- As an Associate Dean in the FGSR I have the opportunity to work on a variety of special collaborative projects designed to improve the graduate school experience and to manage emergent issues. Inspiring Possibilities is one project about which I am particularly excited. This initiative was created with the intention of providing pathways for indigenous students to enter graduate school.
