CAREER SUMMARY - HIGHLIGHTS

I joined the University of Alberta in 1994 and am currently cross-appointed in two departments. I am also a Visiting Research Fellow at the Diana International Research Institute at Babson College in Boston, a leading centre for research on entrepreneurship. My career highlights are as follows:

Research: Sustained impact in the sociology of work, entrepreneurship, and labour markets, with over 30 articles in leading journals, 3 books (one 8th edition), and impactful policy reports. My work is highly cited (Google Scholar h-index=29, i10 index= 40, citations=4,736). I have held 19 Tri-Council grants, including 13 SSHRC grants as PI or CI ($2.5M total) and 3 SSHRC-MCRI / PG grants as CI ($7.5 M total). Special awards include the SSHRC Therese-Casgrain Fellowship on Women and Social Change. Two of my books are key references in the field: KD Hughes 2005 Female Enterprise in the New Economy, and HJ Krahn, KD Hughes and GS Lowe (2021) Work, Industry & Canadian Society (8th ed).

Teaching: Design and delivery of 12 different courses in three different disciplines. Supervisor for 4 PhDs and 5 MAs; External Examiner for 5 PhDs; Committee member for 17 PhD and 11 MAs. Served as Associate Chair (Graduate, Sociology) for several years with responsibility for curriculum, program development, and graduate-level training opportunities for MA and PhD students.

Professional/Policy: Strong commitment to policy-relevant scholarship, with presentations to Parliamentary Standing Committees, SSHRC Executive Council, and federal and provincial government departments. I am a past Research Fellow for Canadian Policy Research Networks. Currently I am a team member of the Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) Canada, publishing several major policy reports which have been presented at cross-ministry government workshops and public forums. I am a member of the Academy of Management, American Sociological Association, Canadian Sociological Association, and the Diana International Research Institute.

Editorial / Review: Editorial Board member for two leading journals in my field (Gender in Management; International Small Business Journal) and past co-editor of a special issue Entrepreneurship, Theory and Practice. I currently serve on the Editorial Review Board for the Diana International Research Conference (Babson College) on Gender and Entrepreneurship (2024-27) and the SSHRC Insight Grant Merit Review Committee (2025-27). I review for a wide range of journals on work, entrepreneurship, and labour markets.

Administrative: Associate Chair (Graduate) in Sociology from 2009-12 and Jan-June 2016. I have served on a diverse set of committees in three different departments and two faculties, including Faculty Evaluation Committee (Faculty of Arts), Advisory FEC (Sociology), and hiring committees. I have also contributed to several University-level committees on pay equity and equity, diversity and inclusion.
